Dynamite Blast Wrecks Building; $50,000 Loss

Police Say Ten Pounds Of Dynamite Used at Waggoner Trucking

An explosion which police said was caused by a large quantity of dynamite, ripped apart the Wilbur Waggoner Trucking Co. office and garage building at Market street and Washington avenue, Madison, early this morning.

Damage to the building and contents was estimated at $50,000.

The blast, which occurred at 1:23 a.m., blew windows out of several nearby residences and rained pieces of concrete blocks on a parking lot on the north side of Market street, damaging six autos and trucks, several of them extensively.

No estimate of the damage to the homes and parked vehicles was available, but police reports indicated it will run into several thousand dollars.

While police attributed the blast to dynamite, the owner of the trucking firm, told the Press-Record that he believed the explosion resulted from leaking gas. He noted that a gas heating unit was located in the center of that section of the building most seriously damaged.

Due to dynamite
Emmett Pavia, Madison chief of police, said the explosion "definitely was caused by dynamite" and said that evidence given him "by experts" indicates that "about ten pounds

Special Meeting Tonight by GC Clean Air Board

A special meeting of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the city hall council room to consider a series of citizens' petitions requesting city action if Granite City Steel Co. is unable to eliminate its red dust nuisance. The firm is in the process of fine tuning its $3,500,000 precipitators.

The meeting was called by Board Chairman Henry Bienecki who said the board will hear a report by its technical secretary, Prof. E. C. Hoelscher on his inspection of the BOF steelmaking system at Granite City steel and the company's actions in correcting deficiencies alleged to be causing disintegration of homes and autos and creating a pollution problem.

Bienecki said any residents who have air pollution complaints of property damage they suspect is caused by air pollution are urged to attend the meeting and fill out a form to provide essential details of their complaint. He said this information may be helpful in defining the problems and bringing about a remedy.

If a complainant is unable to attend the meeting, he may file his report with the switchboard operator at the City Hall, 877-6111.

Petitions signed by about 350 persons complaining of the red dust from Granite City Steel were presented to the city council in last Monday night's regular council session. Most of the complaints came from residents living in the vicinity of the mill.

Petitioners claimed their homes and autos were being discolored by an air pollutant and that they were faced with property damage and medical bills.

Wednesday Deadline To Get City Stickers

Police are planning a crackdown to enforce the auto license ordinance. Heretofore, the first of the month, fees are $3 for automobiles and varying amounts for trucks.

GC Steel Acts to Eliminate Red Dust

$60,000 Rush Program
Begin; Temporary
Steps Already Taken

A rush program for installation of $60,000 in new facilities for "in-plant dust control" planned by Granite City Steel Co. as a remedy for the air pollution problem resulting from removal of red dust from the electrostatic precipitators at the basic oxygen furnace plant, Lyle F. Gulley, executive vice-president, announced today.

In letters directed to Granite City Mayor Donald Partney and Henry Bienecki, chairman of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, Gulley said that "insofar as the red dust originates at our plant, we have every confidence the situation can and will be straightened out."

Emission of a powdery red dust from the steel plant has resulted during the past several months in numerous complaints from residents who said paint on their homes and autos has been discolored by the pollutants and that their health is endangered. The company has attributed source of the red dust pollutants to the process of removing the red dust from the precipitators and hauling it away from the plant in trucks.

A special meeting of the Air Pollution Control Board is scheduled at city hall tonight to consider petitions signed by more than 500 persons, asking the city to take action if the problem is not corrected by the steel firm.

In his letters to Partney and Bienecki, Gulley enclosed copies of a report from the company's air pollution consultant, Raymond R. Tucker, who, Gulley informed the two officials, has reviewed operation of the company's steelmaking process.

The citation to Mathias recognizes his efforts in "promoting better understanding and respect for law and the courts, stimulating individual responsibility among citizens, and contributing to the effective functioning of our governmental system."

He is the unanimous choice of a committee of citizens appointed by bar officials.

Leo H. Konzen, Madison County Law Day chairman, said the purpose of the Liberty Bell award and related activities is to foster deeper respect for law and order and greater appreciation among Americans for their nation's heritage of freedom under law.

furnaces and electrostatic pre-cipitators.
Tucker's report points out that "the gas cooling and cleaning system for the furnaces operates in a generally satisfactory manner. However, the volume of smoke and dust which would otherwise enter the atmosphere has led to another problem having to do with the dust itself after it has been removed from the furnace exhaust gases."

Galley noted in the letters that "the dust problem did not develop until a considerable time after our new basic oxygen furnace plant went into operation, and resulted from repeated mechanical problems and breakdowns in the conveyor system used to transfer dust from the precipitators."

Number of Problems
"There has been no single cause, but one thing is true and something else the most likely cause is the noise. We have now completed a thorough study of the dust disposal problem within our plant and explained that the dust has escaped from the system during periods when the con-veyer system was down for repairs, and during periods of high winds, the dust deposited on the ground inside the plant was discovered to be blowing outside."

"We now have temporary measures in operation," he said, "and are expediting the completion of facilities which will, we believe, result in a permanent solution. As a temporary measure we have (1) removed red dust on the ground in the vicinity of our BOF plant as completely as possible, (2) dressed off the entire area with crushed slag to prevent further blowing, (3) rerouted the trucks which transport the dust to a company's property, through a route in our plant which provides for minimum exposure to the surrounding community, and
(4) placed temporary covers on the trucks."

Building Dust Enclosure
Galley said a permanent solution to the red dust problem so far as it originates at Granite City Steel is expected to result from two actions.
"We are building a partial enclosure for the entire area where the dust is unloaded from the precipitators," he said. "We have also ordered six massive containers (steel boxes 18 feet long by seven feet wide by four feet high) which will be con-

The red dust will empty into these containers and be carried sealed inside to the landfill where they will be emptied.

of Madison is providing the containers and power equipment for handling them on a truck.
The first container is scheduled for delivery next Wednesday for testing.

Precipitators Adequate
In his letter to Bienecki, Galley said he was "glad the Board (air pollution control board) recognizes that our electrostatic precipitators are adequate. In our opinion, the costly gas cooling and cleaning equipment for our basic oxygen furnaces has come along satisfactorily."

"We are certainly far, far ahead of a year ago when the orange-colored smoke from our open-hearth furnaces was pouring into the atmosphere. This has been virtually eliminated."
"Unfortunately as it was, the mechanical breakdown three weeks ago which had the pre-cipitators out of operation for about 20 minutes did serve to emphasize how much they are accomplishing to make the air cleaner over Granite City and the surrounding communities."

"Mr. Tucker's report points out that red dust complaints have not been caused by any failure on the part of our pre-cipitators. The dust problem is a by-product of the correction of our air pollution problem."

'East Bank Gallery' to be Opened by Gib Singleton

With formal opening this weekend of the "East Bank Gallery" at 2880 Iowa street, the Quad-Cities will have the first gallery of its type on the east bank of the greater two-state metropolitan area and its first "artist in residence."

The gallery-studio is the brain child of local artist and sculptor Gib Singleton, who conceived the idea to provide a setting for artists to display their work.

"Once a person leaves high school or college, they cannot find a good facility on the east side to display their talent and works for the public," Singleton said. "We hope the gallery will fill the need for such a facility."

The opening of the newly-renovated and refurbished building will be celebrated by a one-man show of its founder's works. The studio will subsequently be opened to showings of the works of other artists, Singleton said.

Vacant Store Bldg.
Until recent months, the two-story brick structure, housing the gallery, was in disrepair and run-down condition. The building formerly contained a grocery store and had been unoccupied for some time when acquired by Singleton. The gray and black and white exterior now presents a pleasant contrast to its previous appearance.

Referring to himself as "almost a native Granite Cityan," the 32-year-old artist attended local grade schools and was graduated from Granite City high school. For nearly six years, he has devoted himself to the arts and has applied his talents on a full-time basis the last 18 months.

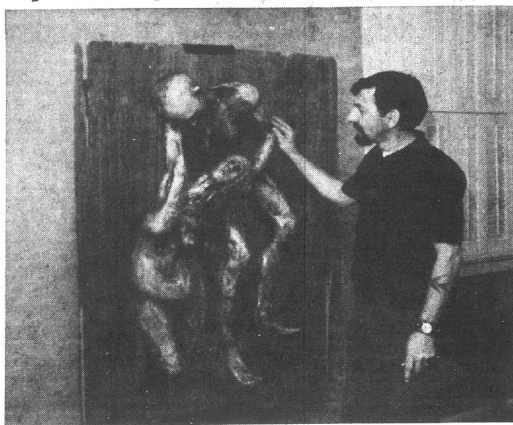

Singleton received a degree as an Art Major in 1967 from Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, where he won considerable recognition, including first prize at the 1966 Spring Art Show. He also acquired a number of other area awards, including first prize at the 1967 River Roads Exhibit.

Last year, the artist spent six months at the University of Florence, Italy, where he studied sculpture and art history on a fellowship grant under the tutelage of several renowned professors.

It was on the advice of his professors in Florence that Singleton decided to open a studio here.

His works in oil, steel, bronze and water color have been described as "reflecting his concern with the moods and emotions expressed by the human figure... crafted into modern expressions of recognizable forms."

His art also reflects the skills he learned while working on his degree of associate in technology at SIU-SW and while employed as a welder with Illinois Power Co. He credits his later job as helping him to perfect SCULPTURE, which reflects the agonies of persecution suffered by the Jews before the Nuremberg trials, is among the works of Gib Singleton, local artist and sculptor, whose East Bank Gallery at 2880 Iowa street will have its formal opening this weekend.

"EAST BANK GALLERY" at 2880 Iowa street is a remodel store, done attractively in gray, black and white.

'Keep Illinois Beautiful' Is State Drive for May

Gov. Kerner is asking the cooperation of all residents of the state in a month-long campaign during May to "Keep Illinois Beautiful." With the Garden Club of Illinois and a number of organizations and civic groups, he had proclaimed May as a time for intensive cleanup of both private and public properties.

Public officials, schools and colleges, churches and temples, the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, the Illinois Jaycees, the Illinois Chapters of the National Campers and Hikers Association, the Illinois Association of Junior High School Councils, the Illinois Press Association and the Illinois Municipal League are asked to provide leadership for the cleanup drive.

"Everyone is invited to take part in this program. It is aimed at the elimination of litter around our homes, along our highways and our waterways and in all public and private areas of the state," Kerner said.

Fleishman said invitations have been mailed to as many retailers and professional people as possible, but that anyone who is interested in the plan and did not receive an invitation may contact the American National Bank, First Granite City National Bank or the Granite City Trust & Savings bank.

PhD. from Colorado Disputes 'Jacks' Title of Local Group

A Doctor of Philosophy at Colorado State College, Greeley, Colo., has taken time to write the Press-Record and dispute the claim of a local "jacks-playing" group to the all-time marathon record.

George E. Fay, Ph.D., Department of Anthropology-Sociology at Colorado State, attached to his letter a UPI clipping from a Denver newspaper. Dated June 1961, the item notes that Mrs. Suzette Steele, 21, and five teenage boys, all of Granite City, claimed that the 33 hours and 30 minutes they spent playing jacks was an all-time record.

In reference to the clipping, Dr. Fay states "...I hate to disappoint her (Mrs. Steele), but while I was teaching at Wisconsin State University in Oshkosh, Wis., the fraternity of which I was an advisor (in the Spring of 1966) played jacks for a continuous 48 hours, and then finally stopped because of the lack of interest, in that no one would challenge them!"

"The incident revealed local publicity, but apparently did not warrant national publicity. But the woman mentioned certainly holds no title," the educator concludes.

Before the game of "oneezes, twoezes" began at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 10, in the home of Mrs. James L. Steele, 2916 Forest avenue, Jim Monroe, a Granite City high school student, told the Press-Record that several sources were being contacted in an effort to determine if a jacks-playing record existed.

A check with the manufacturer of the little girls' ball-bouncing game and other statistical authorities, who carefully compile information about such feats, failed to produce any previous official record holders.

Monroe and another participant, Lennie Giles, also a GCHS student, remained in the jacks contest the entire 33 hours and 15 minutes, until 6:45 a.m. Friday, April 12.

Mrs. Steele stayed with the teenage quintet a full 25 hours before quitting. Others involved were Richard Stagg and Bobby Lipscomb, Coolidge JHS pupils, and Jerry Newman, a senior high school student.

According to Dr. Fay, the local group must extend up their staying time another 15 hours to better the Wisconsin students' record.

Informed about the dispute to their title, Mrs. Steele said, "I think the boys will accept the challenge and try to better the 48-hour mark. They were still going strong at the end of the 33-hour period, so I believe they can do it."

"We tried desperately to discover our previous record holders before we started and during the course of the game, but received no response. When the boys hear about the letter from Dr. Fay, I think they will want to try again."

The new marathon attempt may have to wait until the youths have a break in their school schedule, Mrs. Steele added.

Former Residents Parents of Son

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Stark of Portsmouth, Va., former Granite Cityans, are announcing the birth of their first child, a son, April 18 in the U. S. Naval Hospital. The new arrival, whose weight was eight pounds, 13 ounces, has been named James Brian.

Mrs. Stark is the former Myrna Wright, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wright, 3213 Rodgers avenue. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mills, 2203 Edna street. Great-grandparents are Mrs. H. A. Shackelford and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Clindard. The great-grandfather is deceased. Mrs. Wright returned Friday from Virginia where she flew to be with her daughter.

Miss Simmons, Rev. Lowe Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Donna Faye Simmons and Rev. James L. Lowe exchanged wedding vows Friday evening at Trinity Tabernacle Church, Sixth street and McNair avenue, Madison.

Rev. C. M. O'Guinn officiated at the 8 p.m. ceremony before an altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli, snapdragons, mums and Jade trees.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Simmons, 1708 Elizabeth street, Madison, and Rev. Lowe, who resides at 2031 (r) Fourth street, Madison, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Lowe, Coaling, Ark.

Three Holes-in-One Shot at Arlington

It's unusual enough for three holes - in one - to be reported on a weekend, but all three in one day tops a fisherman's tale of the "One that got away."

The Arlington Golf Course had three single shots turned in during Saturday afternoon as Raymond Price of Roxana, Joe Carrara of Florissant and John Keeley, East St. Louis, each had an ace on three different holes.

Price hit a three wood shot 185 yards on the 13th hole, Carrara hit a four iron 200 yards on the 17th hole and Keeley hit a four iron 190 yards on the eighth hole.

This was the first time in five years of operation that the Arlington course has had this happen.

Thierry, who lives here at 4920 Hills avenue, had planned to close his bakery Saturday. His wife had been robbed of $15 last Tuesday by a man who resembled a robber who held up the bakery the previous week.

He was stopped Friday night a short distance from the bakery at 2701 Cass avenue, St. Louis, by a youth who threatened him with a knife and demanded money. Police in a passing patrol car saw the robbery and arrested the youth. A few minutes later Thierry was attacked by three youths who beat him until the operator of a shoe shine stand near the bakery ran out and rescued the victim.

Police are looking for a group of St. Louis youths who attempted to steal bucket seats, a stereo unit and the transmission from the sports car of Gene McGovern, 2900 Edison avenue on Friday. The items were left on top of the car as the thieves were frightened away from McGovern's garage. One suspect was taken into custody and questioned.

Informing Public Is Scientist's Big Task

Importance of communications between scientists, as well as between the scientist and lay people, was stressed Friday before the Illinois State Academy of Sciences by its president, Milton D. Thompson, director of the Illinois State Museum. The organization's three-day session convened at the southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University Thursday and continued through Saturday.

"The scientist," Thompson said, "faces a dual responsibility. First, to maintain our respective professional competence through study and re-training, and secondly the constantly and appalling task of bringing before the rest of the population a sufficient understanding of this expanding knowledge so that it may be used to insure not only our survival but also the survival of our way of life."

Thompson, as state museum director, noted that he is well aware of the problems of bridging the gap between scientific discoveries and interpreting these findings to the public. This, he said, is further complicated by the explosive

James E. (Jim) Walker, candidate for State Representative on the Democratic ticket protesting the endorsing of non-union candidate, I'm still running to win. It seems there is a conspiracy between Springfield and the hierarchy of the labor unions. It has been said that the candidate that has been endorsed by COPE, the political arm of the unions, had it in the bag before he went before the screening committee. The same candidate had a pipe line to Springfield and got his name second on the ballot when another man sat all night in the hallway to be first, yet he came in third.

I am a union member, and college graduate, yet I could not get the endorsement of the unions. What about ethics—the unions say not to buy from non-union businesses, yet they endorse a non-union man for office. What is the difference pray tell me. On the other hand it might be they don't want an Ordained Minister around. Is there still that much prejudice and bigotry against a Christian? Then of course there is, you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours. Some have said I should not run for political office, it is too dirty, but I'm still running to win. I cannot work for a non-union candidate, as is suggested by COPE.

Miss Nancy Woods is Bride of Robert Mohr

Miss Nancy Woods became Mrs. Robert Mohr Saturday morning in a wedding ceremony taking place at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church. She is the daughter of the groom's father, Mr. and Mrs. Alden F. Woods, 1337 St. Clair avenue. The groom is the son of Mrs. Theodore Mohr, 1940 Baron drive, St. Louis, and the late Theodore Mohr.

Rev. Gerald McCaughey officiated at the 11:30 a.m. ceremony before an altar adorned with bouquets of white flowers. Wedding selections were played before and after the ceremony by Phil Spence, organist.

Mr. Woods gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace. The Empire bodice of organza was appliqued with motifs of lace and the neckline was traced with tiny seed pearls. An A-line skirt fell gently in the back to form a chapel train. It was edged with a border of Chantilly lace.

Her melody length tiered veil was secured with a forward headpiece of pearls and rosebuds and her bouquet was an arrangement of lilies of the valley and carnations centered with an orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Katherine Harting, and bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Wood and Miss Phyllis Sharville, appeared in identical dresses, floor length of karate and cotton lace in ice aqua. Designed with a bodice of karate and a yoke of cotton lace at the neckline the sleeves were of bishop style. A skimmer skirt fell to the back to reveal a court train of karate with appliques of lace flowers.

Each wore a headpiece of daisies and carried bouquets of daisy pom poms and blue carnations.

The mother of the bride was attired in a three-piece suit with matching accessories. The mother of the groom selected a three-piece pink suit and matching accessories. Both wore white orchid corsages.

Serving the groom as best man was Thomas Hundelt, with Robert Sullivan, Gerald Yockim, Ralph Woods, brother of the bride, and John Ackerman, brother-in-law of the groom, completing the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Rose Bowl with Miss Sandra Eggers attending the.

A rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening in the home of the bride's parents.

The former Miss Woods was graduated from the local high school in 1964 and is employed in St. Louis. Mr. Mohr graduated from De Andreis high school, St. Louis, and is employed at Union Electric Co., St. Louis. He also attends evening classes at Florissant Valley Junior College.

MORE ABOUT Dynamite

dynamite was used to cause that much damage."

Chief Paza declined to comment on his source of information, but it was known the police called in the Granite City Army Depot bomb squad immediately after the blast. The explosion virtually leveled the entire front half of the building, located on the southwest corner of the intersection. The front half of the building collapsed into a heap of concrete and wooden rubble.

Police said that concrete blocks and other debris, apparently blown out of the front wall of the building shattered the right side of the 1955 pickup truck, tore out the whole right side of a 1967 pickup truck shattered the entire left side of a 1965 passenger car and knocked the rear windows out of three other passenger cars.

Concussion from the explosion broke eight windows at the residence at 1541 Market street, police said, and broke a window at 1539 Market street. It was pointed out that other windows in homes might have been broken by the blast, but not yet reported to police.

Streets Littered
Wagoner said the Illinois Power Co. was to make a thorough inspection of the area today and that he had been told the bomb squad also planned to make another inspection after part of the debris has been cleared away. Two large trucks were inside the garage building for repairs, but received only minor damage, Wagoner said. Streets around the building were littered with finely broken glass for a block's distance and pieces of concrete were blown into the street for nearly half a block away from the plant. Wagoner described the building as a total loss.

Illinois in 1818--St. Clair Claims Title of Oldest County in State

(From the Files of the Granite City Press-Record)

The oldest county in Illinois is St. Clair. When Illinois was admitted to the Union in 1818, St. Clair county's boundaries were the same as they are today, with the exception of the Prairie du Long precinct, which has been transferred to Monroe county.

There were 503 inhabitants in the county when the state was admitted, making the density of population about seven to the square mile. This was higher than any other county in the state at that time.

However, there was only about one family to each square mile. And since part of the population was in villages, the elements were so sparse that neighbors seldom lived nearer to each other than two miles.

The county seat was at Cahokia at first. In March 1814, the county commissioners decided to establish a new county seat because of the unavailability of Cahokia. It was described as a "miserable, little little hole" by a traveler of that time.

The corn field of a farmer named George Blair was selected as the new county seat. Blair donated to St. Clair county one acre of land for county buildings and one fifth of the lots in the town.

The survey was made at once, and Belleville became a city. The June term of court was held at the Blair farm in 1815. What is now East St. Louis was known as Illinoisville.

In 1816, the property across the river from St. Louis was placed under the name of Jacksonville. The new town did not thrive, and in November 1817 the site was relocated under the name of "Town of St. Clair."

At the time of the admission of the state into the Union, the place was a thriving little village.

State Mental Health Services Decentralized, Stigma Removed

By the Illinois Department of Mental Health (First of Two Articles)

Since 1961, the state of Illinois has reorganized and decentralized its mental health services, it is being noted during Mental Health Week April 28-May 7.

Administration of state services for the mentally ill and retarded has been placed under the direction of a psychiatric hospital, a new Mental Health Code has been enacted to facilitate access to treatment and to eliminate the stigma formerly attached to mental illness.

Early Care Essential
Our philosophy of mental health care is not to wait until a person is sick enough to enter a state hospital, but to provide for early treatment in the community.

To begin facilitating treatment of patients in their own communities, zone mental health centers have been built in six Illinois cities. The centers are the focus of new community mental health activities, bringing additional treatment, training and consultation resources to the state's major metropolitan areas.

Building more and bigger buildings and adding beds is not the complete answer to the problem of mental illness. The Illinois answer is a program of prevention and treatment as close to home as possible.

Chronology of Progress
In his inaugural address of Jan. 9, 1961, Gov. Otto Kerner remarked that Illinois people had shown their concern for mental health when they voted in 1960 to issue $150 million worth of bonds to improve public welfare facilities.

He added, "The voters of Illinois have said: 'We care. We want the best possible care for the treatment of our mentally ill.' It is our responsibility to see that they get it."

First step taken was creation of a Department of Mental Health with a board-certified psychiatrist as director. A study commission was established to decide what should be done with services in the old Department of Public Welfare which were not involved in mental health. This resulted in creation of the separate Department of Children and Family Services.

Now, for the first time in the state's history, there is a separate department devoted solely to mental health and mental retardation.

Pattern for Nation
To relieve pressure on the state hospitals, the Department of Mental Health designed its plan to furnish service to the mentally ill and retarded as close to the communities in which they live.

This design for comprehensive community mental health centers is the model for the late President Kennedy's 1963 program to return mental health services to "the open warmth of community concern."

To new zone centers will bring new mental health programs nearer to every citizen.

Illinois is divided geographically into eight zones, six served by zone centers.

The East St. Louis zone consists of the counties of Bond, St. Clair, Monroe, Madison, Washington, and Fayette.

Another law permits counties to tax for mental health centers. Madison county is among those approving a referendum to provide funds for such mental health services.

While plans for the East St. Louis zone are being completed, Alton State Hospital will serve as the state's principal mental health facility in this zone.

Also in operation are the zone headquarters at 310 North Tenth street, East St. Louis; the Quad-Cities Mental Health Center, State street and Madison street, Quad-Cities; the Murray Children's Center, a state institution for the trainable and profoundly retarded at Centralia; Specialized Services programs in Alton and the Quad-Cities; centers in Alton, Belleville, East St. Louis and Irvington; and the Stookley center in Belleville.

Each of the zone centers is the hub of mental health services in its zone and is to offer a full range of in-patient and out-patient treatment. Each is to have a network of modern one-story buildings in a campus setting.

The zone director coordinates programs at present hospitals and mental health facilities. Also, part of his task is to stimulate other local-level mental health services.

Law Serves All People and Is Their Only Path to a Just and Better Society

The theme of Law Day, 1968, makes what might appear to be an obvious point, that "Only a Lawful Society Can Build a Better Society." But it is a truth that needs to be reiterated and discussed frequently, especially in such times as these.

The eleventh annual observance of Law Day, Wednesday, May 1, will occur on the same day, May Day, that Communists use to beat the propaganda drum for their system of oppression in areas they govern and insurrection elsewhere.

Identical timing was chosen deliberately because it dramatizes the sharp contrast between the rule of law and rule by men.

Those who maintain their regime by brute force will flaunt their military might with gigantic displays of rockets and missiles with vast armies parading through the streets.

On May 1 in this country, there will be simple but impressive civic programs and ceremonies intended to help each one realize that it is the citizen himself who is the backbone of democracy. Madison county activities Wednesday will be highlighted by presentation of the Liberty Bell Award to a citizen who exemplifies such leadership and responsibility—Carl E. Mathias of Granite City.

Law Day's three-fold objectives are: 1. Foster a deeper respect for law by teaching how laws serve and protect all people.

2. Encourage responsible citizenship by demonstrating that individual rights and freedoms involve individual obligations.

3. Emphasize the basic values of the rule of law in the U.S. as compared with the iron fist of Communism.

Regardless of whether they admit it, all Americans depend on our structure of laws to maintain their present way of life, and to have an opportunity to improve it.

Thankful that they enjoy hard-won freedoms, Madison County on Law Day will rededicate themselves to uphold the law as the only way to support justice and preserve all that they hold dear.

LABOR LAWS BENEFIT UNION MEMBERSHIPS

To the Editor: In regard to the Labor letter criticizing the Taylor-Hartley and Landen-Griffin laws, I am a member of Local 16, United Steelworkers of America, and have been an employee of Granite City Steel for over 20 years and a shop steward for many years.

I suggest that all workers, who are members of organized labor, that they should read these two laws before they make up their minds for or against them.

I believe these laws do control the big laborers, the people they had over all locals. Before these laws came into effect, the membership of the locals had very little to say. You were not allowed to disagree; if you did, you were fired from your job or even taken part in any political campaign.

Employees should take no one's word. They should read these laws and find out for themselves.

SCRIPTURE CALLS FOR ABSTINENCE

To the Editor: To all who read this message—

Do you know what your Bible says about alcoholic beverages? Their Proverbs 23: 31-32, "Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

Surely this Scripture is a demand for total abstinence. In the Old Testament there are three special words for wine—one for all kinds of wine, one for fermented grape juice, and one for fermented, intoxicating wine.

The last mentioned is used in bad company; see Isaiah 45:11, "Who to them that follow strong drink," the word being used 42 times.

The second mentioned, indicating fermented grape juice, is used 38 times. Example: II Chronicles 3:5, "First fruit of corn, wine, oil, and honey."

In the New Testament, one word, oinos, is used for sweet grape juice, another word or words for strong drink. There is no indication whatsoever that Jesus made intoxicating drink at the wedding feast at Cana, or that fermented wine was used. Matt. 26:29, "I will not drink of this fruit of the vine again."

We should have a prohibition law right now. Will you work for such?

Shocking State Reversal on Horseshoe Lake Park Plan Is Unacceptable to This Region

The comparative ease with which the mini-sized Lewis and Clark Park is obtaining land acquisition funds creates a feeling of awe among those who have been supporting development of Horseshoe Lake as a park, wildlife refuge and water recreation area.

For years, lake park advocates were told, in effect, "You have a fine piece of land, happy to help make it a reality once the acute state financial shortage eases." Now they are told there is plenty of money, but their plan is no good. "You're surrounded by railroad tracks down there. You too near to industrial activity to have a quality park."

This surprising reversal, even if one momentarily forgets the implications of past insincerity by conservation administrators, cannot be condoned or accepted.

At one time it was the theory that parks should be created some distance from built-up areas, enabling visitors to "get away from it all." But the accepted state and national concept now is that parks also should be placed "where the people are." This enlightened approach underlines how important it is to proceed with the well-planned Horseshoe Lake improvements.

It is simply not believable that the windswept, flood-prone area at the intersection of the Chain of Rocks and Hartford canals offers more public benefits than the lake, which could be a truly outstanding outdoor sports center and scenic attraction.

Lewis and Clark may someday be a fine park for the limited purposes projected for it, and we hope that it is soon. But its development is a Johnny-come-lately plan that should rank second in priority to the many years of endeavor to establish a state park at Horseshoe Lake.

What is believable is that state officials yielded to what they themselves describe as intense pressure from within and outside Illinois.

This pressure included a boatload of Missourians who docked at Lewis and Clark (actually a considerable distance from the lake and high water) in connection with a national trail commission meeting in St. Louis. Implicit in this effort was an attempt to build an adjacent port and related industrial development; a compromise later made provision for both a port and expansion of the park.

The Illinois Metropolitan Area, evidently has been using a more feeble kind of "pressure" (considerable) which it pays to support Springfield bureaus and other state activities, a population (also considerable) that wants and badly that can be improved inexpensively and dramatically if there is a will to do so.

The news out of Springfield and the thinking that behind it is an effort to the entire Madison-St. Clair counties area. Citizens and elected officials ought to take adequate remedial steps immediately.

If we've just been kicked along about Horseshoe Lake all these years, a major shake-up by Gov. Kerner or his successor is in order—and there should be firm commitments to promptly develop Horseshoe Lake by all 1968 candidates.

The Illinois Metropolitan Area, evidently has been using a more feeble kind of "pressure" (considerable) which it pays to support Springfield bureaus and other state activities, a population (also considerable) that wants and badly that can be improved inexpensively and dramatically if there is a will to do so.

The news out of Springfield and the thinking that behind it is an effort to the entire Madison-St. Clair counties area. Citizens and elected officials ought to take adequate remedial steps immediately.

If we've just been kicked along about Horseshoe Lake all these years, a major shake-up by Gov. Kerner or his successor is in order—and there should be firm commitments to promptly develop Horseshoe Lake by all 1968 candidates.

What is believable is that state officials yielded to what they themselves describe as intense pressure from within and outside Illinois.

This pressure included a boatload of Missourians who docked at Lewis and Clark (actually a considerable distance from the lake and high water) in connection with a national trail commission meeting in St. Louis. Implicit in this effort was an attempt to build an adjacent port and related industrial development; a compromise later made provision for both a port and expansion of the park.

The Illinois Metropolitan Area, evidently has been using a more feeble kind of "pressure" (considerable) which it pays to support Springfield bureaus and other state activities, a population (also considerable) that wants and badly that can be improved inexpensively and dramatically if there is a will to do so.

M-16 Rifles for South Vietnamese

By U.S. SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCY

I support the Defense Department's decision to provide all South Vietnamese troops with M-16 rifles so they can assume a greater role in the Vietnam war.

In connection with the $22 billion authorization for military procurement bill, which provides the hardware for the military program in fiscal 1968-69, the Defense Department has announced plans to raise production of the M-16 to more than a million a year by late 1968, and also to equip the 700,000-man South Vietnamese with the sophisticated new weapon.

I know that many of us who have encouraged the Administration to provide for a greater role for the South Vietnamese in the Southeast Asian conflict, enabling earlier de-escalation by U.S. forces, are gratified by this move.

When I talked to Gen. William Westmoreland in Vietnam in December, I learned that the Allied forces badly needed additional M-16s simply to provide a token number of weapons to the South Vietnamese prior to the celebration of Tet as an indication of U.S. determination to assure the equipping of a modern South Vietnamese army.

by public declaration of such a renewed effort. In a "Meet the Press" appearance on Jan. 7 and in an article in This Week magazine March 23, I criticized the Administration for a lack of a second source of supply of the M-16. I also called for the Defense Department to drastically overhaul its procurement policies.

When I talked to Gen. William Westmoreland in Vietnam in December, I learned that the Allied forces badly needed additional M-16s simply to provide a token number of weapons to the South Vietnamese prior to the celebration of Tet as an indication of U.S. determination to assure the equipping of a modern South Vietnamese army.

Amendment to Income Tax Return

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q — I forgot to include my W-2 form when I filed my joint return. Should I send it in now?

A — If you included the income tax withholding data from the W-2 on the form you filed, wait until you are contacted by IRS. You will be asked to supply the missing W-2 form.

However, if you did not include the wage and tax information from the W-2 on your return, then you should file Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Fill out this form completely according to the instructions and send it to the Internal Revenue Service Center serving your district.

Q — What's the deadline for paying my maid's Social Security tax?

A — The next payment is due April 30. This will cover taxes withheld for January, February and March.

A return must be filed if cash payments of $50 or more are made to a household employee during a three-month calendar quarter.

Q — I just moved. Could that be why my return hasn't come?

A — Many refunds can't be delivered because the taxpayer has moved and not given the postmaster his new address. If you have not done so, file a change of address card with the post office where you used to live.

Q — You should also notify your regional IRS Service Center of your new address. When you do this, be sure to give your Social Security number as well as your name and address.

Q — I claimed no withholding exemptions last year but was not underwithheld when I filed my 1967 return. Is there any way I can have more taken out of each paycheck? Your employer will tell you when the change will be effective.

Q — My neighbor filed his return about 10 days before I did but he had a refund. How can I find out what happened to mine?

A — Normally, a refund return takes five to six weeks to process. However, if you have received no word in 10 weeks from the date of filing your return, write to the regional Service Center.

Lipoprotein Key to Artery Health

Blood lipoproteins, which carry essentially all the fats in the blood, are needed for the normal metabolism of fats. It is believed . . .

Dr. Angelo Scam, Associate Professor of Medicine and Biochemistry at the University of Chicago, says it is conceivable atherosclerosis may be caused by an imbalance among blood lipoproteins.

He said, "If we can define a normal lipoprotein balance, we should be able to screen normal subjects and perhaps predict their proneness to atherosclerosis."

However, Dr. Scam admitted that medical science does not yet know how to correct possible imbalance in plasma lipoproteins, which may lead to atherosclerosis. "We will have to wait," he said, "until scientists are able to define blood lipoproteins in vigorous physical, chemical and biochemical terms."

Progress in this direction, he pointed out, will enable us to understand not only atherosclerosis, but other disorders in fat metabolism.

A destructive needle blight that first appeared in a Monterey pine plantation in Tanganyika, Africa, in 1957 is now threatening forest pine in north coastal California.

The migration of the whistling swan from the Chesapeake Bay to its nesting grounds in northwest Canada will be tracked this spring via radar by the Department of Commerce's Environmental Services Administration.

Purpose is not only to gain insight into the migratory habits of the whistling swan, but also to learn how high and fast it flies, since it constitutes a serious hazard to aviation.

The bird weighs 20 pounds. Two years ago a plane crashed in Maryland after striking two whistling swans in flight.

Sp4 Dan King, Wounded in Vietnam, Now in Denver

Specialist Fourth Class Danny L. King, 21, a U. S. Army paratrooper and a member of Granite City high school's 1965 state champion wrestling team, sustained severe wounds to the left foot on April 3, when he stepped upon an enemy anti-personnel mine while on patrol near Bong Song, Vietnam.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, 1924 Johnson road, who learned last week the serviceman had arrived at the Fitzsimmons Army Hospital in Denver, Colo.

While in Vietnam, SP4 King was a member of the 173rd Airborne Brigade of the 503rd Airborne Division—the same unit in which three Granite City youths were serving when killed in action taking Hill 875 at Dak To, on Nov. 21.

Initially, the wounded paratrooper was taken to the 67th Evacuation Hospital near Qui Nhon, Vietnam, from where he was transferred to Clark Air Force Base Hospital in the Philippines. Several days later, he was flown to the 249th Army Hospital, outside Tokyo, Japan, where he underwent surgery on his foot.

More Surgery Scheduled
The soldier is scheduled to undergo further surgery at the Denver Hospital, according to his father, who conversed with the youth by telephone late last week.

SP4 King entered the army in November 1966 and took basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, followed with advance combat and jump training at Fort Benning, Ga., and Fort Bragg, N. C. He arrived in Vietnam on Oct. 3.

In a letter to his parents, dated April 5 and written while a patient at Qui Nhon evacuation hospital, the serviceman

Illinois Clean Air Board Meets Tomorrow

The Illinois Air Pollution Control Board will hold its regular meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Mansion View Motel, Springfield.

The board will act on a routine agenda of complaints and requests for variances. Action is expected to be taken on pleas for certificates of exemption by Cook county and the village of Morton Grove.

Tax incentive regulations announced by the board recently also are scheduled for consideration, including the authority of the technical secretary in the handling of such requests.

The board's May meeting will be held May 23 in Granite City.

recalled events leading up to the action in which he was wounded.

"As you know, we moved up to Kontum and Dak To. Well, that didn't last very long. We lost quite a few men up there. My company started out with over a hundred men and now we've only about 60 left."

Mission to Destroy

"The Army finally realized that we weren't up to strength, so now we're over near the coast at Bong Song, between Qui Nhon and Nha Trang. Our objective up here is to find and destroy the 249th V. C. Supply and Transportation Battalion. They supply all the V. C. equipment in the area."

The soldier continued, "A Chieu Hoi (a Viet Cong who gives himself up) led us to one of the places where all the goods were. Charlie must have heard us coming and left. But he also left behind three to four tons of rice and all kinds of rifles and tools."

"While we were searching the camp, we found a lot of booby traps and I found one personally, directly under my foot. . . I am very lucky to have it. If it hadn't been for the steel shank in the sole of the boot, the explosion would have taken my foot right off."

Fracture of Heel Bone
The youth's father said Friday, the family had received the Purple Heart Medal which was presented the paratrooper at the 67th Evacuation Hospital.

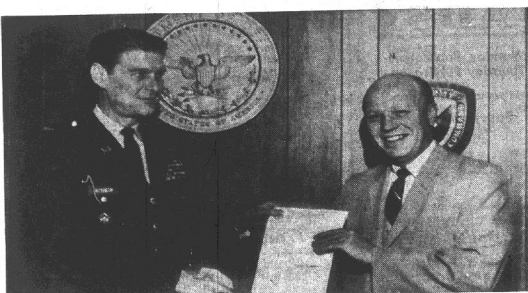

Mr. King reports the wound is quite severe, involving an open fracture of the heel bone, severance of the achilles tendon and multiple bone damage.

In a letter written before leaving Japan, SP4 King said the Army physician commented, "You won't be fighting any more wars."

It looks like I've seen the last of Vietnam. I feel kind of bad about leaving all the guys behind back there," the serviceman wrote, adding that he considered himself lucky during the time he spent over there.

A life-long resident of Granite City, SP4 King attended Illinois University-Southwestern and Alton campuses following graduation from Granite City high school in 1965.

Friends may write him at: SP4 D. L. King, US 66583078, Ward 5-E, Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver, Colo.

CONGRATULATIONS for placing first in a class of 19 who attended U.S. Army Materiel Command Comptrollership course of six weeks at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., are presented to C. Wayne Banks, a civilian comptroller at the Granite City Army Depot (right), by Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, depot commander. Banks lives at 3203 Newell drive.

Trinity Methodist Church

New Chancel and Lighting Fulfills Dream of Sisters

The recent dedication of a new memorial chancel and new lighting fixtures in the sanctuary of Trinity Methodist Church is the realization of a dream for many congregation members, but especially for two sisters, whose individual efforts were greatly responsible for its fulfillment.

Rev. Clair Clark, Trinity Church pastor, cites Mrs. Ella McKittick and the late Mrs. Magdalena Dick as leaders of the beautification project.

"Whose dream of a memorial window in the chancel was born nearly 15 years ago."

The two church members began working toward the achievement of their dream in the early 1950's and, from time-to-time, memorials were given in honor of various persons and the memorial fund slowly started to take shape, the minister said.

Start on 3 Goals
Mrs. Dick died in 1963, but Mrs. McKittick kept "plugging away" at the project, and in November of last year, the church trustees began a concerted drive toward three goals—completion of the memorial, retirement of an air-conditioning loan, which paid for air-conditioning the church in 1967, and the purchase of new lights and fixtures.

Rev. Clark said the air-conditioning loan was repaid before Christmas and preliminary plans were drawn up for remodeling the chancel.

The renovated chancel is illuminated with Gothic lantern type fixtures, designed and constructed to blend with the open beam ceiling and the general architecture of the church by the Kelco Co. of Minneapolis. The new lights were given by the Harold Fogle family and the Gilbert Robb family, Rev. Clark said.

Portrait of Christ

Oak paneling, matching the altar furniture, extends around the walls of the chancel and accentuates the new altar. The focal point is a lighted stained glass window, four feet wide by five-and-a-half-feet high, with the figure of Christ standing with hands outstretched in a field of clouds.

The chancel was built and installed by the church members.

YMCA Chess Club Membership Growing

The Adult Chess Club of the YMCA has now reached a membership of more than 20, according to Phil Boczkiewicz, chairman of the club.

So far, communities of Collinsville, Godfrey, East St. Louis and the Quad Cities are represented. This helps to emphasize the fact that there are no club boundaries, Boczkiewicz said.

Ages of the members range from 18 to 68. In the few weeks of the new club's operation only

ER ADA RAY, April 30, 1967. One year has passed since that sad day. When one loved was called away. God took her home—it was will. Within our hearts she liveth still. SADLY MISSED BY DAUGHTER, GRANDDAUGHTER AND RELATIVES 33-429

IN LOVING memory of JULIA CHOMKO, April 29, 1967. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break but all in vain; To have, to love, and then to part, is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never. The memory of those happy days. When we were all together. SADLY MISSED BY FAMILY, RELATIVES AND FRIENDS 33-429

Quarterly Returns for Excise Taxes Due Soon

Federal excise taxes must be paid to the Internal Revenue Service within the near future, according to Jay G. Philpott, district director for central and southern Illinois.

Manufacturers and other taxpayers required to file quarterly federal excise tax returns, except those liable for transportation and communication taxes, have until Tuesday, April 30, to file and pay the tax for the calendar quarter ended March 31.

Taxpayers liable for more than $100 but no more than $2,000 of excise taxes listed on Form 720 for any month, except the third month of the quarter, are required to deposit the amount of tax for that month at a Federal Reserve Bank or an authorized commercial bank by the last day of the next month.

Federal Tax Deposit Forms 504 are used to make deposits in these banks.

Taxpayers with over $2,000 a month liability for any month in the preceding calendar quarter make semi-monthly deposits of tax by the end of the next semi-monthly period — the 15th and last day of each month. However, transportation and communication taxes are deposited within three banking days after the close of the semi-monthly period.

Those who make full and timely deposits of taxes due for all three months of the first quarter of 1968 have until Friday, May 10, to file Form 720. Returns should be addressed and mailed to: "Internal Revenue Service, Springfield, Ill. 62704." Taxpayers who receive a preaddressed Form 720 should use it in filing the return.

Trailer Hitch Should Not Obscure Plates

Motorists who plan to pull trailers behind their cars on vacation trips this summer were warned today by Secretary of State Paul Powell to be sure the trailer hitch is attached to the car in such a position that it does not partially or completely obscure the rear license plate.

Powell said advance care in the placement of the hitch at the time it is installed may prevent an arrest later in the season.

The motor vehicle law requires that license plates be displayed on vehicles "in a place and position to be clearly visible, and shall be maintained free of foreign materials and in a condition to be clearly legible," Powell noted.
